CHEAT SHEET :

WHITE DIET — 48-HOUR CHEAT SHEET (POST-WHITENING)

Keep enamel happy while it settles.
Rule of thumb: if it can stain a white T-shirt, skip it.

THE WHITE T-SHIRT RULE

One-liner: If it can stain a white T-shirt, it can stain your teeth—especially in the first 48 hours after whitening.

Why this works: After whitening, enamel is temporarily more receptive to colour because the pellicle (the thin protein film) is disrupted and the tooth surface is slightly dehydrated and more permeable. Dark chromogens (the pigment molecules in coffee, tea, wine, haldi, paan, beetroot, etc.) latch on more easily. As the pellicle reforms (≈24–48 hours), stain uptake drops back to normal.

When it matters most

- First 48 hours post-whitening or after a power session.
- Immediately after each home-tray session (for ~2–3 hours).
- After a deep clean/air-polish (short-lived, but the same idea applies).
